

New Faces

By Jamie Buckingham

Michele Buckingham is my daughter-in-law, the wife of my oldest son, Bruce. When Ed Caldwell, because of ill health, had to step aside from his job as associate editor, I asked Michele to take over temporarily.

Michele has an English and journalism degree from the University of Maryland and worked as a congressional writer in Washington, D.C., before marrying Bruce and moving to Florida. In addition to writing a number of articles for both Charisma and Ministries Today, she was editor and project manager for Help! I'm a Pastor's Wife and edited the workbook for my new video curriculum on Spiritual Warfare.

As of this issue she is being named the permanent associate editor for Ministries Today.

We've also moved the editorial offices of the magazine to Palm Bay, Florida—about 85 miles east of the new home offices of Strang Communications in Lake Mary.

All Letters to the Editor, manuscripts and editorial correspondence should be sent to our new editorial address: Ministries Today, 3901 Hield Road N.W., Palm Bay, FL 32907.

Phone: (407) 725-4206.

Fax: (407) 729-8707.

Business and advertising mail should be sent to the new home office of Strang Communications: 600 Rinehart Road, Lake Mary, FL 32746.

Lake Mary office phone: (407) 333-0600.

Address changes and subscription mail should be directed to P.O. Box 881, Farmingdale, NY 11737-0001.

Not many men log the air miles that Loren Cunningham does. As the founder and president of Youth With A Mission (YWAM)—one of the world's largest missionary organizations—Loren has ministered in 180 countries. He has a unique perspective on what God is doing around the globe. Like Caleb and Joshua of old, he is more excited about the acts of the Holy Spirit than with the negative reports of the enemy.

I'm honored Loren has agreed to join our distinguished list of regular columnists. His Caleb Report will bring a new world perspective to the pages of this magazine—and into the lives and ministries of our readers. ■
