Activating Angels Through Prayer

Angles are all around us standing ready to fight our spiritual battles for us. All we need to do to activate them is to pray. When we pray, God mobilizes the angelic forces, and suddenly the battle is no longer ours. The battle is the Lord's.

God is in Control

In the book of Habakkuk we learn of that prophet's hardships in life, his desperate situations. Yet, despite his complaining, God impressed upon him the fact that He is control of all things. This book will help you understand what God means when He says the just shall live by faith. God is indeed in control of this world.

Healing for Today

Healing is at the very heart of the gospel of Jesus Christ. The Lord manifested Himself through healing power. In this book Jamie explains why healing is still relevant today and available to us. He also explains what the Scriptures say about people or institutions who refuse to believe that God still heals today.

How to Get Ready to Die

We all face death. It is inevitable. The Scriptures say that life is a mist that appears for a little while then vanishes. The fact is, life as a Christian is a process of learning not only how to live, but how to get ready to die. What is the key? As a Christian, life becomes a great adventure when you know you are dead to the world yet alive in Christ.

Laughing at Life

"If we truly believe God is in charge, we might as well relax and enjoy life." So states Jamie Buckingham as he gets very personal with himself and with his fellow pastors. His stories are funny, yet, his humor has a purpose. This book will make you laugh, and think, and perhaps enjoy life a little more.

Perseverance and God's Faithfulness

In his last teaching, Jamie Buckingham proclaims, "If we fold our tent now and quit, then all the pain we've been through is for nothing. We can't afford to stop trusting God. All we have to do to endure our situation is to persevere and know God is faithful to bring us through."

Senior Saints

"Stop living like you are already dead," says Jamie Buckingham in this book about growing old but not being old. Regardless of your age, you have high value to God and He needs you more than ever. There is no place in the life of a Christian to retire in a rocking chair. That is not God's plan for your life. Be creative and productive to the very end of your days.

Thanksgiving in the Pit

Have you ever found yourself in an emotional, financial, or spiritual pit? Using the life of Joseph of the Old Testament as an example, Jamie discusses how God uses the two types of pits we often find ourselves in – the pit of correction and the pit of curing. These are God's tools for getting our attention for the life-lessons He wants us to learn.

The Weights of Life

This book is about trusting God as we go through the tough times in life. Like the weights of a grandfather clock, God often places weights on us, to keep us moving in the right direction. Without them, we may stop seeking His guidance, or just stop altogether. Our most serious disappointments may be our greatest blessings, if we will simply trust in God.

Unproductive Seasons

In this story you will read that the blessed tree is not the kind that requires constant watering in order to bring forth fruit in its proper season. In the same way, a blessed man is not meant to produce fruit all the time. But he will produce fruit in the proper season and in God's timing, when his spiritual roots are dug deep into the reservoir of Living Water: Jesus Christ.

When You Are Born Ugly

We live in a culture that sets a very high standard for beauty. But what if you are not beautiful? Leah was a woman in the Bible who had to deal with more than just being unattractive – she had to deal with the fact she lived with her beautiful sister.

This story is about being ugly in a world that glorifies beauty. God, however, looks beyond our physical imperfections to see our heart.

When Your Prayers Go Unanswered

What are we as Christians to do when it turns out that God's plan for our life is different from our hopes and our dreams? What happens when things go wrong? How do we overcome the great disappointments in life? What does the Bible say about facing this reality?

Armed for Spiritual Warfare

Christians are under attack from a deadly but invisible enemy. God has given us orders to be armed for battle in spiritual warfare as Satan mounts a massive attack against Christians and the church.

Ephesians instructs us to put on the full armor of God and stand against the devil and his schemes.

Spiritual Maturity

In 1200 B.C. Moses led the children of Israel into the burning crucible of the Sinai Peninsula—that barren and remote desert separating Egypt from the Promised Land. Go with Jamie as he follows the footsteps of Moses through the Sinai and teaches the same lessons God taught the ancient Israelites—lessons that are still relevant and important to Christians today.

Thoughts from the Heart of God

“Success does not come by making popular decisions. It comes by obeying God.”

“One reason there are so many unhappy Christians is they feel God should be doing them favors...rather than working as a Carpenter to shape their lives back into His own image.” Enjoy this collection of favorite quotes and excerpts by Jamie.
