

Writer Is Guest On WTTB Radio

Jamie Buckingham, a native of Vero Beach, will be here today, Thursday, to appear on a radio program and discuss his recently published book, "Run Baby Run."

He will appear on WTTB's Open House program in the morning, after which he will be the guest at an autographing party at Waverley Book Shop.

CARD OF THANKS

To The Indian River Memorial Hospital:

On behalf of my family and my mother, I want to express my sincerest thanks and appreciation for the services you rendered for my father, Mr. Alexander Sitkoff.

We wish to thank Drs. Kelso and Fromang and all the staff of the Emergency Room and Intensive Care Unit for helping towards his recovery.

Sincerely yours,
Gloria Sitkoff Krasotkin
(Daughter)

The book, written by Nicky Cruz and Buckingham, carries an introduction by Billy Graham. "Run Baby Run," he says, "is remarkable. It has all the elements of tragedy, violence, and intrigue—plus the greatest of all ingredients: the power of the Gospel of Jesus Christ."

Nicky Cruz was a key subject in the four-million-copy best seller "The Cross and the Switchblade." In Run Baby Run Nicky tells his life story of a young man's rise from gang warfare in the streets of a big city to the plush stages before millions the world over.

The publishers say that the book contains the answers to the questions facing our go-go generation. The book has been recommended for all age levels.

Buckingham graduated from Vero Beach High School and is a graduate of Mercer University. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter S. Buckingham of Vero Beach.
